An Act

To establish the Civilian Immigration Bureau, ensuring proper verification of foreign nationals and residents into the Mabruenian Kingdom.

Category: Executive Agency
Date Created: April Seventh, twenty-twenty-six
Date Signed: April Eighth, twenty-twenty-six

Preamble

Recognizing that the Gaelic Kingdom of Mabruenia needs better citizen verification, acknowledging the need to create an agency for civilian verification per the constitution, The Ministry of the Home Office, Ministry of Justice, and the Crown hereby enacts this legislation to define the structure of the Civilian Immigration Bureau.

Article I — Short Title

This act shall be known as the "Civilian Immigration Bureau Creation Act"

Article II — Structure of the Civilian Immigration Bureau

- Leadership: The C.I.B shall be headed by a director that is chosen by either the Minister of the Home Office, or the Minister of Justice, and confirmed by the Grand Assembly. The director shall be aided by a deputy director.
- Administrative Oversight: The Bureau shall operate under the joint jurisdiction of the Ministry of the Home Office and the Ministry of Justice.

Article III — Scope of Authority

- Administrative Only: The CIB is a registry and verification agency. It does not hold jurisdiction over other powers which remain exclusively with the Ministry of the Home Office and the Ministry of Justice.
- Digital Verification: The primary function of the CIB is to verify the identity and credentials of individuals applying for Mabruenian citizenship or residency through digital means.

Article IV — The Verification Process

- The Sovereign Ledger: The Bureau shall maintain a digital ledger of all verified and banned persons from this point on.
- Verification Standards: Applicants must meet the standards set by the Minister of the Home Office.

Article VI — Enactment

This Act shall take effect immediately upon the signature of the Crown.
